

ORDINANCE NO. 259

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF ROANOKE, ALABAMA, as follows:

1: That the owner or person in possession or control of every dog within the police jurisdiction of the City of Roanoke, Alabama, be and he is hereby required to have such dog inoculated with Rabies Serum or vaccine for rabies once each year, said inoculation to be completed on or before the first day of March of each year following the year 1934, but for the year 1934, such persons are given until July 1st, 1934, to have said inoculation completed. That when such dog has been properly inoculated with rabies serum in such manner as will render them immune to the disease of rabies for the period of one year, there shall be placed upon or around the neck of such dog or affixed to his neck with a tag with the year inscribed thereon in which such dog was so inoculated. By inoculation is meant such inoculation for rabies as will will render a dog immune for a period of one year.

2. That any person failing to comply with this ordinance shall upon conviction be fined not less than five dollars and each day that such person shall neglect to comply with this ordinance shall be regarded as a separate offense.

3. That any dog found within the police jurisdiction of the City of Roanoke, without having been so inoculated, after this ordinance shall go into effect, shall be taken up by the officers of the City of Roanoke, and if not so inoculated by the owner or at his expense within two days after being so taken up, shall be killed by such officer.

That this ordinance shall go into effect immediately upon its approval by the Mayor and its publication in the Roanoke Leader.

Adopted and approved this the 11th day of June, 1934.

Attest: Ora E. Jones, Clerk,
City of Roanoke, Ala.

W.H. Mann, Mayor,
City of Roanoke, Ala.
